CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
TUCK SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AT DARTMOUTH

Tuck India Forum

TUCK india business conference

May 04, 2007

What's YOUR India Strategy?

Time: 09:00 to 17:00

Location:
Tuck School of Business
100 Tuck Hall
Hanover, NH 03755

Capacity: 300

Audience:
The audience will consist of Tuck students and professors, Tuck alums, Tuck Overseers Board members, Dartmouth students and professors, other business school students, and industry professionals.

Contacts:
Hari Manappattil
857-891-1356

Mehul Nagrani
208-724-3873

Website:
www.tuckindiaforum.org

Keynote 1: Leveraging India—Riding the Elephant

Given the dynamic business environment in India, which strategies work and which ones don't? Recent examples illuminate the discussion.

Keynote 2: India 2020-Looking Forward, Reasoning Back

How will strategies evolve as India marches into the next decade? A unique foresight.

Panel 1: Doing business with India

With a rapidly growing middle class, consumer markets in India offer unparalleled opportunities. How can companies tap into this market? How can they leverage the talent pool India offers? How should they prepare for changes from India's economic emergence?

Panel 2: Investing in India

The investing environment in India is evolving rapidly. What risks and returns does the country offer? How can an international investor participate in the process?

Lunchtime Chat: Progress from the Bottom Up

The economic divide is wider in India than in most other countries. How are companies and organizations addressing the bottom of the Indian pyramid?

Other Events on May 04, 2007

Tuck Overseers are at Tuck for the Overseers Board Meeting

Tuck Alums on campus for the annual Tuck Update